International Conference on Challenges and Opportunities in Engineering Management

ICEM 2014 is an initiative at department of Engineering Management (DEM) College of Electrical and Mechanical Engineering (CEME) National University of Sciences and Technology (NUST) to provide a forum to the academicians and practitioners of management especially in the engineering domains to share issues faced in the field, contemplate upon the challenges, decipher the related research and devise solutions to the contemporary issues after giving due consideration to all the possible options.

The academic process at DEM / NUST CEME envisaging excellence in academics and research, will not yield optimum benefits sans addressing field issues and linking the extant research. This multidisciplinary, multi-track research conference precisely aims at serving this objective. The conference envisages to bring together the academia, researchers and the practitioners from the fields to share challenges emerging in environment, technology and market and join hands to evolve such solutions as may be viable using the current trends in research.

Major tracks for the conference include (but not limited to) the following:-

- Project Management
- Supply Chain Management
- Total Quality Management and Certification
- Operations Management
- Manufacturing Management
- Contract and Legal Engineering Management
- Maintenance & Safety Management
- Cost and Financial Management
- Knowledge and Information Management
- Human Resource Management
- Production System Management
- Work Study and Ergonomics
- Risk and Crises Management
- Waste Management
- System Engineering and Simulation
- Advanced Practices in Engineering Management
- Environment Management
- Technology Management
- Energy Management
- E - management
- Research Methods in Engineering Management
- Current Issues in Entrepreneurship, Strategic Management, Governance and allied domains

ICEM 2014 aims at serving as a forum to bring academicians and practitioners from Management and Engineering domains to share their concerns, Issues and Experiences & find optimal solutions.

The conference extends a special opportunity for professionals from institutions and industries all over the globe to join together and share the experiences. A bonus includes an interaction of cross-disciplinary professionals from all Management fields to share the knowledge with members inside and outside their own particular disciplines.
